

Mr. Bob Walsh
Vice President, Navistar Defense, LLC

Bob Walsh is Vice President of Navistar Defense. Walsh has helped lead the military group since its inception nearly four years ago. Walsh was instrumental in taking this business from concept to reality, and has helped transform the Military business from an incidental business to a full service organization—listed as #89 in 2007 on the prestigious Defense News list of Top 100 defense contractors.

He has been actively involved in every aspect of the military business - researching opportunities, developing sources, evaluating potential contracts, technical operations, and ensuring delivery of reliable, high quality vehicles. Walsh is an integral force behind developing and growing the company's military vehicle offerings from MRAP to MTV – from U.S. to foreign military sales.

